CORAM : A.P. LAVANDE AND R. V. MORE, JJ.
DATED : 29th October, 2007

Heard Mr. Jagdale, learned counsel for the appellant.

The appellant takes exception to the judgment and order dated 24.9.2007 by which the writ petition filed by the appellant has been partly allowed.

The petitioner was transferred from Yavatmal to Pusad by the respondent/employer. The said order was challenged by filing Complaint No. 52/2007 before the Industrial Court, Yavatmal. The petitioner sought interim relief which was rejected by the Industrial Court. As against the said order, the petitioner preferred Writ Petition No. 3540/07. The learned Single Judge of this Court directed that the petitioner shall remain under suspension till the enquiry is completed and further directed that the employed shall complete the enquiry within a period of three months. The learned Single Judge further kept in abeyance the transfer from Yavatmal to Pusad till the enquiry is completed.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and having perused the records and orders passed by Industrial Court as well as learned Single Judge, we find no ground to interfere in the LPA. In our opinion, the learned Single Judge has correctly appreciated the factual and legal position and passed the impugned order. No case is made out for interference.

Needless to mention that in case any adverse order is passed by the respondent, the appellant is at liberty to avail appropriate remedy available in law.

The Letters Patent Appeal stands dismissed.

C.A. No. 7871/2007

In view of dismissal of LPA, civil application stands dismissed as infructuous.
